

Sound Transit 12-month Commitment to Tap for fare compliance

Dear Passenger,

We are sending you this form as an alternative to paying a $50 violation fee for a third non-fare compliance interaction aboard Sound Transit vehicles.

Once you have signed this form, please return it to the Sound Transit Fare Resolutions department to the address at the end of this document, or email it to fareresolution@soundtransit.org, within 10 business days of the date you receive it.

Once we have received this signed form, we will keep it on file for the rest of the 12-month period, which starts on the date of your first warning. When the 12-month period has concluded, we will remove all interactions from your record.

If another occurrence of non-fare compliance happens within the 12-month period, this commitment will be voided. The cumulative interaction penalties will be due at that time.

Your commitment end date is:

Please sign below to show you understand where you are in the fare compliance process and that you commit to purchase valid fare going forward:
