Ridership Analysis

April 2013: 22 weekdays, 4 Saturdays, 4 Sundays for ST Express, Central Link, Sounder and Tacoma Link

All Sound Transit modes experienced ridership growth on weekdays during April 2013. Downtown Seattle local boardings continue to be included in the ST Express totals since the Ride Free Area was discontinued in October 2012. Total Sounder commuter train ridership was up 10%, even with significant service interruptions due to mudslides on the North line. Average weekday Sounder boardings decreased by 7% on the North Line and increased by 9% on the South Line. The North Line experienced four days with service interruptions in April, and the South Line incurred one service interruption due to mechanical problems. On Central Link, total boardings increased by an impressive 10%, the fourth straight month with double digit increases from last year's numbers.
