Lagging 2014 budget or standard.

1-Revenue hours: The total amount of time during which service is available to carry passengers. Tacoma Link reports as service hours since it does not collect fares. 2-Cost per boarding is calculated as the total actual operating costs (including Agency overhead) before depreciation divided by the total number of riders. 3-On-time performance standards are described in the budget.

4-Preventable accident: An accident in which the operating employee failed to do everything reasonable to prevent the accident.

Central Link light rail boardings for 2014 increased by 13 percent overall, compared with 2013, but growth slowed towards the end of the year with a 6 percent increase during the fourth quarter. Total boardings for 2014 came in at just under 11 million.

Paratransit ridership continued a steady decline, with a drop of 8 percent for the fourth quarter and 9 percent for calendar year 2014. Paratransit service is provided along the Central Link corridor under contract with King County Metro. Changes in eligibility requirements have impacted paratransit ridership throughout the King County service area.

ST Express bus boardings increased by 6 percent for the quarter, with all but three routes showing growth. Weekday boardings averaged just under 61,000, an increase of 7 percent. Ridership growth was particularly strong on routes connecting Snohomish County with Seattle and Bellevue. In November, additional service was added on Route 510 between Everett and Seattle to address overcrowded conditions during the morning rush. Sounder supplemental bus service showed a large increase due to service disruptions on the Sounder North Line.

Sounder commuter rail boardings increased by 15 percent for the quarter, and average weekday boardings stood at 13,456, also a 15 percent increase. All of the growth is attributable to the South Line; North Line ridership declined by 6 percent, with decreases on both commuter and event train service.

Tacoma Link light rail boardings were down very slightly (-1 percent), hopefully indicating that the long-term decline has bottomed out. Average weekday boardings were down 3 percent, but there was a slight increase in weekend boardings for the quarter.

Central Link light rail boardings were up 6 percent for the quarter, and average weekday boardings stood at 31,370, an increase of 7 percent compared with Q4 2013. As in 2013, event ridership contributed significantly to the boarding totals, particularly on weekends. On Saturday, November 15, Central Link did not operate into downtown Seattle due to a planned SCADA system installation; apart from this, there were no major service disruptions during the fourth quarter.
