2.0 Policy
2.1 Sound Transit facilities are non-public forums subject to the restrictions contained in this policy.
2.2 Sound Transit accepts advertising in order to raise additional revenue. Sound Transit intends to control its advertising in order to maintain a safe and welcoming environment for its customers and employees and to avoid identification with the ads displayed at or on its facilities, including maintaining a position of neutrality on political, religious and controversial matters.
2.3 In implementing this policy, Sound Transit will apply the following guidelines on restrictions to any advertising on or at its facilities:

2.3.1 Sound Transit will restrict advertising consistent with its interests in raising revenue, maintaining a safe and welcoming environment for its customers, and maintaining a position of neutrality on political, religious and controversial matters. 2.3.2 The following forms of paid and unpaid advertising will not be permitted for placement or display on Sound Transit facilities, buses or rail vehicles:

2.3.2.a Demeaning or disparaging. Sound Transit reasonably believes that the content is damaging or disparaging to individuals. For purposes of determining a demeaning and disparaging advertisement, Sound Transit will use prevailing community standards to determine whether a reasonable prudent person, knowledgeable of Sound Transit’s customers, would believe that the advertisement contains material that ridicules, is abusive or hostile to, or debases the dignity or stature of an individual or group of individuals.

2.3.2.b Tobacco. Sound Transit reasonably believes that the advertisement promotes the sale or use of tobacco or tobacco-related products, including depicting such products.

2.3.2.l Political or controversial. Sound Transit reasonably believes that the advertisement, or any material contained in it, promotes or appears to promote any candidate for office and/or any political party or promotes or implies a position on any proposition, referendum, proposed or existing laws, other ballot measures or communications or advocacy on disputed or controversial issues.

2.3.2.m Religious. Sound Transit reasonably believes that the advertisement, or any material contained in it, promotes or appears to promote any identifiable or specific religious viewpoint, message or practice.

2.3.2.n Endorsement. Sound Transit reasonably believes that the advertisement, or any material contained in it, implies or declares an endorsement by Sound Transit, or the jurisdictions within its service area, of any service, product or point of view, without written authorization of Sound Transit or the member jurisdiction, or subjects Sound Transit to litigation.
