Chief Financial Officer

Our mission is to connect more people to more places, and we are looking for an individual who wants to join us on that journey. Under the general direction of the Chief Executive Officer, you will serve as an executive leader and key strategic partner to the CEO and executive leadership team.

We are looking for an individual who is confident and poised to represent Sound Transit to external stakeholders, organizations, partners, and communities. Someone who understands the complexity of working in a public agency, serving the public, and maintaining tax revenue and fiscal responsibility.

The CFO creates a cost-conscious mindset among all employees and ensures financial stewardship exists in all decision-making to guarantee the long-term affordability of the Agency's voter-approved capital expansion plan.

This is an exciting opportunity and an exciting time to be at Sound Transit. We seek someone who sees the train as half full rather than half empty. An individual who is both a strong leader and an empathic one as well. A great communicator and an equally great listener. This individual must also passionately believe to the core that inclusion and diversity make every organization better, stronger, and more innovative.

Our mission and vision – your future.

Our mission of “Connecting more people to more places to make life better and create equitable opportunities for all” is what drives us forward every day. And our vision of “transforming the Central Puget Sound by making our transit service as iconic as the Space Needle and Mount Rainier,” is how we’ll get us there. If you’re looking to make an impact and help shape the future of transportation, help us make history. We are a group of passionate, collaborative, fun individuals who are all working together to reach that goal.

Our culture of values, inclusion, and diversity.

Our values aren't just a set of meaningless words printed on a poster. They dictate how we behave and they are engrained in our culture. We are also fiercely committed to an inclusive and diverse workplace because we believe that every person has value and every voice should be heard. Creating a workplace that celebrates values, inclusion and diversity not only makes us a better company, it makes better people.

Our people make us great.

Our most valuable asset isn't the systems we build or the vehicles we operate. It's our people. They are the heartbeat of our company, and we're proud to say we have some of the best and the brightest. Diversity and inclusion are at the heart of everything we do. Our Employee Resource Groups recognizes and celebrates the diverse cultures that make up our agency. They are where we can share our experiences, celebrate our heritage and backgrounds and lift each other up to succeed. We are united by our mission, driven by our values, and committed to growing and sustaining a diverse workforce, inclusive culture, and equitable work environment.

Our Services.

Just like our region, Sound Transit is in a period of growth and expansion. As our capital program continues, we'll be able to connect more people to more places with Link light rail, Sounder commuter rail, ST Express buses and soon, Stride bus rapid transit. Our voter-approved plan includes 116 miles of light rail track and 80 stations. The network will extend in all directions to form a transit spine for the Puget Sound.

Our promise to you.

So what's in it for you? Glad you asked. If you're looking for a career where you can truly make a difference and make your mark in history, we'd love to meet with you. Together, we can transform our region and work on the largest system expansion effort in the country.

We can also promise that you will be hard-pressed to find a company with a better work/life balance. Speaking of which, you'll find that living in the Pacific Northwest is pretty amazing. You can be at the ocean and rain forest in just hours, find great hiking trails and world-class skiing just a short drive away. If you're a foodie, open wide and say ahh... You'll find an eclectic range of cuisines that will make your taste buds do the happy dance.
