

Federal Way Transit Center/S. 317th

The Federal Way Transit Center includes approximately 1,200 parking stalls and nine bus bays. Customer amenities include covered walkways and shelters, restrooms, bicycle storage and public art. The facility features on-site security personnel, monitored CCTV and panic stations to alert security.

Mode

Bus

Highlights

Construction completed: February 2006

Location: 23rd Avenue South and South 317th

Budget: $39.4 million

Planning partners: Sound Transit, King County Metro, Pierce Transit, Washington State Department of Transportation, US Department of Transportation, City of Federal Way

Consultants & contractors

Preliminary engineering and environmental documentation: Sverdrup Civil

Final design: KPFF Consulting Engineers

Construction management: Harris & Associate

Construction: PCL Construction Services Inc.

Public art

“Tree” by Clark Weigman a large scale multimedia artwork in three movements.

