

I-90 Sunset Interchange

The I-90/Sunset Interchange connects the outside freeway lanes to arterial streets in Issaquah. The project included a pedestrian/bike path that connects the Tiger Mountain trailhead to the Highlands neighborhood.

Mode

Bus

Highlights

Construction completed: 2003

Location: I-90 at Sunset Interchange

Budget: $9.2 million

Planning partners: City of Issaquah, WA State Department of Transportation (WSDOT)

Consultants & contractors

Design: Parsons Brinckerhoff

Construction: Kiewit

Public art

The pedestrian/bike path features a series of sculptures by artist team Jean Whitesavage and Nick Lyle.

