

Rainier Beach Station

Rainier Beach Station construction was part of building Central Link. This street-level station has a center platform. Pedestrian street improvements along South Henderson Street link to the Rainier Beach neighborhood. The plaza at the southeast corner of Henderson and Martin Luther King Jr. Way South has amenities such as landscaping, public art, seating, bicycle parking and lighting.

Mode

Commuter rail

Highlights

Start of service: 2009

Location: Martin Luther King Jr. Way South just south of South Henderson Street

Projected ridership: 2,000 daily boardings in 2020

