Yesterday I flew into SeaTac Airport after a weeklong trip to discover that my favorite form of transportation to Tacoma was no longer available at the airport. A kindly northbound bus driver informed me of the change and dropped me at the Link station. Then it was -- wait for the Link train, ride to Federal Way, wait 15-20 minutes there for the 574 bus, all this while dealing with my luggage. I am 80 years old and this was no easy task. The previously convenient trip to and from the airport to Tacoma is now much more daunting for me. I strongly object to canceling the 574 bus from SeaTac to Tacoma/Lakewood. Please restore this service!
