Proposed action

Appointing Donna Moodie to the Community Oversight Panel to serve a term of three years beginning August 1, 2026 and expiring on July 31, 2029.

Key features summary

- In December 2025, a member of the panel chose to resign their position, leading to a vacancy representing North King County.
 - Currently there is one vacancy in North King County, and two vacancies in South King County.
- Recruitment to fill these vacancies began in early 2026; this action would fill one of those vacancies.
- This would be the first term for Ms. Moodie. If willing, and subject to Board approval, she would be eligible to serve two additional three-year terms.
- Donna Moodie lives in the North King County subarea.
- Recruitment continues for the vacancies in the South King County subarea.

Background

The Sound Transit Community Oversight Panel is a 15-member advisory committee of community volunteers appointed by the Sound Transit Board to monitor and report on Sound Transit's performance in delivering on the commitments it made in Sound Move, ST2, and ST3. The COP is charged with an annual review of Sound Transit's performance and financial plan and provides reports and recommendations to the Board.

The current responsibilities include monitoring Sound Transit's performance in the following areas:

- Community engagement activities
- Project planning and alignment decisions
- Budget and financial plan
- Project schedule and budget adherence
- Agency performance audits

- Passenger experience

COP candidate qualifications include:

- Residing and/or working in King County, Pierce County, or Snohomish County within the Sound Transit district boundary.
- Having experience, skills, or insight in one or more of the Community Oversight Panel's responsibilities - community engagement activities, project planning and alignment decisions, budget and financial plan, project schedule and budget adherence, agency performance audits, and passenger experience.
- Ability to attend meetings once each month in the evening, either in person or via a virtual meeting platform.

Donna Moodie is an accomplished community leader, entrepreneur, and advocate who has led programs aimed at improving economic development, community engagement, safety, wellness, and equity/inclusion throughout the Seattle region. She currently serves as the Chief Impact Officer for the Urban League of Metropolitan Seattle (ULMS) and the Executive Director of the UMLS EcoDISTRICT. In addition to her professional roles, she serves on the boards of the Seattle Foundation, Arte Noir, and GRIST. She brings experience or insight in community engagement activities, social justice and equity, and passenger experience.
